We invite all South Seattle College students, faculty, and staff (as well as our greater community members) to come together and share ideas and reflections on this season's theme: "Adaptation, Resiliency, and Environmental Justice."

The Community Showcase conversation will be led by the Artist as Storyteller student facilitators as well as faculty organizers. We look forward to sharing space, art, and exchanging stories with all of you in celebration of this season's guest artists and the theme of "Adaptation, Resiliency, and Environmental Justice."

ROSIE SCHINNERS, "LAS BRUJAS," 2020

Supported by the Seattle Colleges Performing Arts Fund, the Artist as Storyteller speakers series welcomes BIPOC artists, performers, and activists to share their work and connect with students about what it means to be an artist in today's social and cultural climate. The series emphasizes the art-making and storytelling process as it relates to the individual and community.
